They claim to be god. They nag and nag you to quit drugs but when you do they sabotage you and you go crazy. They tell you how to do everything and how your not doing anything the right way even if it's wiping your own ass They tell you how to do it ! Why the fuck are they watching you shit anyways!!!! They start arguments to make you mad and to keep you talking to map your voice and they blame you when they electronically rape you in your sleep, and then make fun of you when you cry. Telling you your life is nothing but a collection of trash and you have never done anything right in your life! After they are done raping you they tell you you are just another hole! They torment you while your doing the things you love to do until you quit doing all the things you once loved to do they drive you to kill yourself and when you have the fucking gun to your head they chant do it do it do it! They tell you GOD hates you and your going to hell if you don't quit drugs then they make it impossible to do. They make you WANT TO BE DEAD! YOU HAVE NO LIFE AND YOU HAVE NOBODY! how can you have a relationship! They watch you having SEX! And give you pointers on what to do during it! They are EVIL!

They say all kinds of things. When I think about certain things and I feel a certain way due to thinking these thoughts they will attack me by saying "your in TROUBLE", "your stupid", "you are weak as f7ck" they will say ANYTHING to make me go off. The gang stalkers, these sadistic malicious and evil creeps literally attack me when I'm struggling because that's when it's easy to push me over the edge. Minutes ago, out of nowhere i was trying to go to sleep and they began attacking me and it frustrated me to the point where I decided to go back on the internet. They are watching me right now and the keyboard or phone I'm using is slow and I keep making type o's and they notice that and they literally attack me each time BEFORE I even feel irritated. They keep saying I'm stupid. They try to make me hurt myself. They find pleasure in that.

Mine used to project his fantasies on me by having simulated sex with me, telling me he loves me a bunch of times, asking me if I love him back, and talking about his failed marriage and how he wants to start over with me. I can't make this sh*t up! 😞😞

Gangstalkers have to operate in the negative spectrum. Everything they say has to instill a negative emotion in the targets. So when theyre nice or encouraging im like whatd this bitch say? Are you trying to set me up..? I know you scum a littttttle better then that.

they say that the willow springs police officer with a bald head and gangstalkers sexually molested my mentality retarded brother. The irony the police officer looks like a child molester. I don't believe any thing these creeps computer program says. But I think are country needs to do a better job hiring people that work for the police department. Honestly if I were a father I wouldn't let any of those creepy looking losers anywhere near my family. Once again I'm going to keep spitting on you fucking losers. When did the police turn into creepy losers? For the statement alone I wish a much deserving death of cancer on these police officers and there families. Your a disgrace to the badge and our country for making fun of or lieing about any one who's mentality retarded even if its only a computer program. Your still some of the creepiest people I've ever seen. I wish nuch deserving cancer on everybody you know and love. I hope these creepy ass police officers die in a fire.

Related How do you get a gang stalker to admit what they are, and what they have done to you?

Those cowards will never admit what they are let what they have done to you. I've interrogated a perp before and all he did was "deny" everything which infuriated me more, because I know? Exactly what he's been doing to me and my kids over a period of time, he knows too, that's why he reacted the way he did. But to point blankly lie to a persons face about the harassment? The audacity of HIM.. ! I wanted an admission and confession from this idiot, I did corner him in a way where he didn't really know how to react or what to say, and in fear of what I was going to do.. LOL. And I'm thinking;

"What's the matter? You bastards like to dish out a shit load of harassment to a t.i. but when that t.i confronts you, you've nothing much to say".

Everything they do is premeditated and synchronized almost like they planned for it but they didn't that's what's so weird about it. There's a couple of theories involved when it comes to this and none of them have ever been confirmed only theorized. You have to remember my friends that these stalkers play mind games and are evil. Their main objective is to make you go completely insane and in the end kys.

They usually know each other and basically its word of mouth which spreads quick as fire does. That person will tell his/hers circle of friends, those people will tell other circles of people etc. Everyone who is told about a target joins in, so on and so fourth, kinda like the effects of dominos falling one after the other. However, even though they know each other they make out to a target they don't know each other.. (they are not intelligent) a target always KNOWS.. LOL.

It's actually sickening.. what they say to you is not true.. individual.. really horrid things that aren't even true. They also

I believe they have a strong desire to be near the TI'S because we give them a reason to live. They would have nothing worth doing if we didn't exist. These poor demonic narcissists/gangstalkers is possessed and have an assignment to keep us from doing something that we have been born at this time to do. It is so important that evil is coming against us they can't touch us but, if they make us take ourselves out they win or if we so happen to have an accident so we

I saw a letter once that my daughters grandfather wrote to my brother. I assume everybody around me got one. It read that I'm crazy, lazy, on drugs, violent, abusive, into criminal activity, that I kidnapped my own daughter and put her in danger. This is how they turn people against you.

As it turns out, people tend to believe lies they are spoon fed. The first one to speak poorly of another gets believed. So then you have a whole community of people believing a lie. Then they repeat it and this lie becomes their new truth. (Even though it's still a lie)

They lie about it, a lot. The gang stalkers might say they're the ones being stalked.

For instance... You are an animal lover and you want to interact with animals, but people have prejudice against you for that. So they think they have a reason to blame you for all their problems so they start "investigating you" which eventually leads to them retaliating against you for something you're not involved. They think you're the reason for all their problems but they also know you're trying to provoke a reason to blame you. just because they have thes Gangstalkers want to ruin your life. They declared a war on you. These individuals are a bunch of losers and lowlifes. They slander your name to get others to join their group in attacking you. It is psychological warfare and they do everything possible to take you down, but usually won't lay their hands on you. There are a few people who have done something serious, and get targeted as a result of that. There are also people who have done nothing to warrant that type of treatment.

Your stalkers consist of toxic people,vious, cowardly dolts. In many cases, these losers don't

There has been many times that something had been misplaced, or that I was just looking for or keys to my Master locks for my hasps were missing keys for my car etc.. and they told me to walk outside for example to the front gate which was 300 ft away where I look down just before I got to the gate and found the single key that had been taken off my ring obviously and thrown on the ground or just laid there at the same instant that I was looking for and that happened to me at least three times just that specific he incident alone!

Because they are deep into hosting cell tower traffic. Almost anyone with the right gear, can host a cell tower. They have Bots that monitor all traffic. They pick out people who visit sites or apps, that "they" don't like. Then they get your cell phone address and serial code. HOWEVER, it is NOT necessary for them to actually hack your phone. They just need to run a program over theirs cell tower traffic, that will triangulate your location, then they use their DISCORD app, to allocate a jealous and vengeful god, out to do his work. But they are wrong, because they have submitted
